EXPERIENCE

Vivoo

April 2020 - August 2020

Vivoo is a wellness assistant application based in San Francisco that gives personalized nutrition and wellness information to users. As a designer, I was in charge of all the design work such as brand identity, social media, packagings, app screens, etc.

Viya Group

July 2018 - August 2019

Viya is a private government contractor based in Turkey. As a graphic designer, I designed print materials such as brochures, advertisements, books and logo designs. Also, I produced 3D animations of the warships and armoured vehicles for promotional use and maintenance purposes.

Freelance

May 2015 - Present

I designed logos, interfaces, posters, guerilla campaigns, brand identities, look books, magazines and brochures for various clients such as Wella, Exberliner, Red Bull and so on.

Figmenta

September 2017 - December 2017

Figmenta is a small digital agency in Milan. As a design intern my objectives were designing social media pages for diverse brands, developing visual assets and making GIFs. Also, I designed brand identities, user interfaces and assisted the product designers in the user experience process.
